

Journey of Peace VI:

Our Shared Responsibility to Care for All Creation

Sunday, October 11, 2015
4:00-6:00 pm | Assisi Heights

People from all cultures and faiths are invited to participate in the Sixth Annual Journey of Peace Event. Come to experience the power of connecting diverse customs, practices and beliefs in pursuit of building deeper relationships and a more united area community!

The theme of our 2015 gathering focuses on our shared call and responsibility to care for our planet and all of creation.

Plan now to attend this event which will include dynamic interaction about:

- the critical needs of our planet, Mother Earth,
- processes in place to address those needs – including the December 2015 United Nations Conference on Climate Change to be held in Paris, France
- how the various World Religions engage this discussion/ action,
- results of a poetry contest for High School students; concluding with
- the sharing of food and friendship.

PLAN NOW TO ATTEND – with family, friends and colleagues!

More details will be available in late summer.
